Course changes may be triggered by any factor, including External Examiner report, new research, student feedback, change in strategic direction, outcome of review or monitoring exercises Adjustment Course change agreed by Course team alert their EQPO Department, Faculty or liaison officer, who will advise Institute on the approval route and required documentation Adjustment approved. Faculty Board (and/or Degree Course change published. Committee for PG courses) approve the course change Minor Modifications Other committees The School/ICE approves the including: change, if relevant. Senior Tutors' Education Committee (for substantial changes to Minor modification approved Academic Standards and Enhancement Committee undergraduate Change published, amendments to Regulations approve or endorse the courses) made if appropriate change Undergraduate Admissions Committee Major Modifications (for changes to entry requirements) General Board's Education Committee Major modification approved https://www.educationalpolicy.admin.cam.ac.uk/curricula-and-assessment/changes-existing-courses

Report to the General Board if required

Course change published, amendments to Regulations made if appropriate